LATEST DEVELOPMENTS UNDER GST

- CA. V P MANAVALAN, CHENNAI

1. SUPPLIER REGISTRATION WAS CANCELLED AFTER SUPPLY OF GOODS WHETHER ITC CAN BE DENIED TO THE RECIPIENT.

The Honorable Supreme Court of India in the case of Shanti Kiran India (P.) Ltd. Versus Commissioner Trade and Tax Delhi [2025] 179 taxmann.com 665 (SC) held that the recipient is Bonafide purchaser hence ITC cannot be denied

This Consideration before the Delhi High Court was presented and honorable Delhi High Court was considered that whether the benefit of Input Tax Credit (ITC) is available to the registered purchaser dealers (respondents herein) who paid taxes to registered seller dealer(s) in terms of invoice(s) raised by them even though those seller dealers did not deposit the collected tax with the Government.

There is no dispute that on the date of transaction, the seller dealer(s) were registered with the Department. However, after the transaction, the registration of those seller dealer(s) was cancelled, and they defaulted in depositing the tax collected by them from the purchaser dealer(s). The High Court vide impugned judgment and order(s) found respondent(s) bona fide purchaser dealer(s) who had paid taxes in good faith to registered seller dealer(s) and, therefore, entitled to the benefit of ITC and, accordingly, allowed the said benefit to them after due verification of invoices.

2. Where purchaser was denied ITC solely due to supplier's failure in GSTR1 compliance and non-reflection in GSTR-2A/2B- cannot be denied Petitioner, public company is in tea business, challenged validity of Section 16(2)(aa) In view of the above section 16(2)(aa) of the CGST Act 2017 provides that the details of the invoice or debit note has been furnished by the supplier in the statement of outward supplies and such details have been communicated to the recipient of such invoice or debit note in the manner specified under section 37. The supplier was not reported the invoice in their GSTR1, and it was not reflected in GSTR2A/2B. to the recipient Then the GST authority was denied the ITC to the recipient.

In this case the Honorable Calcutta High Court in the case of MCLEOD Russel India Ltd. v. Union of India 2025] 181 taxmann.com 322 (Gauhati) held that in our estimation, the restriction is quite iniquitous because an onerous burden is placed on purchasing dealer. However, since the object and purpose of the amendment in the Act is to prevent fraudulent ITC claims and to promote supplier compliance, we are not inclined to hold the amendment in Section 16 to be unconstitutional but for the present, we only read it down to the extent that in case of the supplier acting truant, before denying the ITC benefits to a bona fide purchaser, he ought to be given an opportunity to prove his bona fides, which can be verified by the tax invoices and other documents.

We have read down this provision only till the time CBIC comes out with any practical solution to the problem posed by making the availability of ITC to the bona fide purchaser contingent on factors which are totally in the hands of a supplier and not the purchaser.

3. The recipient was not claimed the ITC through GSTR3B on or before 30th November as per section 16(4) but claimed in GSTR9- Whether ITC Can be claimed- YES Can be claimed and matter remanded

In this Scenario the Honorable Calcutta High Court in the case of LAXMI GHOSH Versus STATE OF WEST BENGAL W.P.A. No. 20364 of 2025, decided on 24-11-2025 has held that the adjudicating authority ought to have considered the effect of GSTR-9 and the particulars furnished therein rather than to say that what was claimed in the annual return was not reflected in the return filed under GSTR-3B. This would be the proper manner in which the case had to be dealt with otherwise the purpose of filing an annual return in terms of Section 44(1) of the Act read with Rule 80 would become redundant.

4. Cross empowerment Parallel proceedings under Section 6 (2) (b) of CGST Act cannot be initiated.

The Honorable Supreme court in the case of ARMOUR SECURITY (INDIA) LTD. Versus COMMISSIONER, CGST, DELHI EAST COMMISSIONERATE Special Leave Petition (C) No. 6092 of 2025, decided on 14-8-2025 has summarise the following detailed conclusion in this case.

- i. Clause (b) of sub-section (2) of Section 6 of the CGST Act and the equivalent State enactments bars the "initiation of any proceedings" on the "same subject matter"
- ii. Any action arising from the audit of accounts or detailed scrutiny of returns must be initiated by the tax administration to which the taxpayer is assigned.
- iii. Intelligence based enforcement action can be initiated by any one of the Central or the State tax administrations despite the taxpayer having been assigned to the other administration.
- iv. Parallel proceedings should not be initiated by other tax administration when one of the tax administrations has already initiated intelligence-based enforcement action.
- v. All actions that are initiated as a measure for probing an inquiry or gathering of evidence or information do not constitute "proceedings" within the meaning of Section 6(2)(b) of the CGST Act.
- vi. The expression "initiation of any proceedings" occurring in Section 6(2)(b) refers to the formal commencement of adjudicatory proceedings by way of issuance of a show cause notice, and does not encompass the issuance of summons, or the conduct of any search, or seizure etc.
- vii. The expression "subject matter" refers to any tax liability, deficiency, or obligation arising from any contravention which the Department seeks to assess or recover.
- viii. Where any two proceedings initiated by the Department seek to assess or recover an identical or a partial overlap in the tax liability, deficiency or obligation arising from any particular contravention, the bar of Section 6(2)(b) would be immediately attracted.
- ix. Where the proceedings concern distinct infractions, the same would not constitute a "same subject matter" even if the tax liability, deficiency, or obligation is same or similar, and the bar under Section 6(2)(b) would not be attracted.

x. The twofold test for determining whether a subject matter is "same" entails, first, determining if an authority has already proceeded on an identical liability of tax or alleged offence by the assessee on the same facts, and secondly, if the demand or relief sought is identical.

5. Establishment of fake invoices- ITC can be denied

The Honorable Supreme Court in the case of ASHIRWAD FOUNDRIES PVT. LTD. Versus COMMISSIONER OF CGST AND CENTRAL EXCISE held that Unretracted witness statements, non-existent suppliers, bogus invoices, and impossible vehicle details established fraudulent CENVAT credit; since mere banking-channel payments could not cure fictitious transactions, High Court's well-reasoned denial of credit required no interference.
